The Land, Environment, Resources and Health (LERH) PhD Program: our Mission

LERH Program mission is to define integrated strategies for the management of natural resources, for promoting an intersectoral rural development and associated bio-based economic activities using advanced knowledge and expertise.

The emphasis is on applied research on sustainable technologies, innovative management options and integrated policies.

LERH and Departments of the Campus

- Establish clear goals and learning outcomes
- Generate interest & provide explanation
- Active engagement of students
- Help you learn to learn
- Concern & respect for students & your learning
- Provide appropriate assessment & feedback

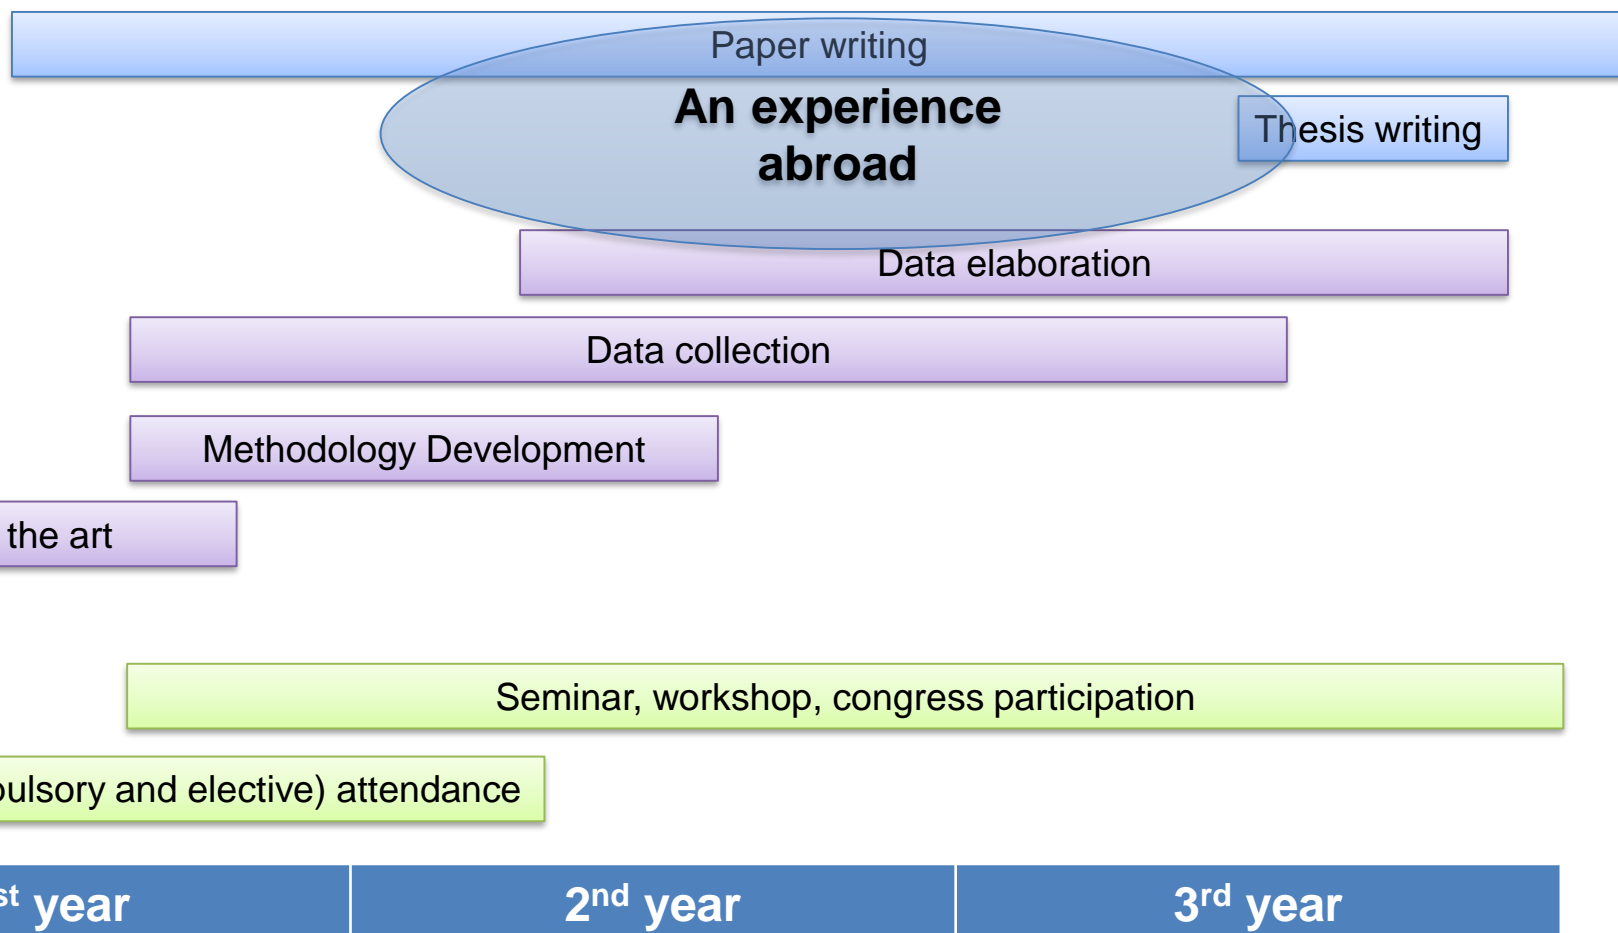

PhD program activities: Main focus

- Main focus of your work in the 3 years (beside attending your learning activities, participating to events, networking, ...):
 - 1st year: the state-of-the-art in the research topic you have selected, define the methodological approach(es) (start data collection?)
 - 2nd year: the methodological approach(es) is verified ← a period abroad in a leading research institution; field data collection; data collection
 - 3rd year: data collection (?!); research results elaboration and thesis writing

Main activities Time schedule

PhD program procedures: reporting

Written documents:

- Beginning 1st year (3 months time from the start; deadline: 18th Dec): your PhD student Research and Learning Program
- At the end of each year you have to present a written report approved by your supervisor, that will be also orally presented and formally approved by the PhD Council
- The thesis

The templates for the Research and Learning Program and for Reports are available on the LERH web site (Documents)

Oral presentations:

- At the end of each year: a summary of your activities presented to the PhD Council
- (take advantage of every other event: LERH internal meetings and seminars, workshops, ...)

PhD program procedures: first step

The Learning and Research Program for the 3 years, agreed with your supervisor, has to be presented and formally approved by the PhD Council; you will receive a request in 2 months time.

The plan will describe:

- a. Your provisional research project
- b. Your individual learning program

Reporting Time schedule

Students' reports (Research & Learning Program and the three Annual Reports) have to be uploaded, with the signature of the supervisor, in the OwnCloud Dept. service.

Mrs. Antonella will provide the pwd and instructions on how to use the service.

The thesis will be also uploaded on a web-service (a different one)

Teaching

2023/24 Learning activities

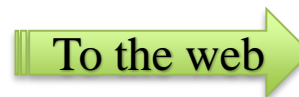

Here you can find detailed information on the titles of the courses and calendar offered by LERH and the other three Doctoral Schools of the Agripolis Campus of the University of Padua. The file lists the various courses, with basic info on titles, teachers, ECTS and whether they are compulsory or just eligible for LERH students. The syllabi of the courses are visible here. Please note that the learning program can be modified during the year, with new courses being added or existing courses being modified during the year. In particular, courses' venue and timetable will be updated, to allow optimal combination of the various activities of both professors and students, as well as to allow taking advantage of any new teaching opportunity that might arise. Therefore, please do not forget to periodically check the calendar. Thanks for your collaboration. Enjoy the courses!

Please find details and materials on the various courses on the LERH page on Moodle.

STAGE E TIROCINIO

The relationship with your tutor

- You are free to select your supervisor(s): the main supervisor should be a member of the PhD Program Council
- The Council will officially approve your main supervisor

... and if you have problems with your supervisor?

Contact:

- the PhD program Board
- the students' representatives

... the supervisor can be changed, if there are good reasons for this “divorce”!
